About the Chartered Governance Institute of Southern Africa (CGI)

Chartered Governance Institute of Southern Africa offers the only professional qualification for the Company Secretary profile which is registered on NQF level 8 – equivalent to an Honours Degree. The qualification is recognised internationally and Chartered Governance Institute of Southern Africa members in good standing are welcomed anywhere in the world. You will gain a competitive advantage as those with professional qualifications stand out to prospective employers. CGI of Southern Africa is also the professional body for Company Secretaries and the benefits of membership are substantial and will enhance your professional career. So in essence Chartered Governance Institute of Southern Africa is the qualifying body and chartered membership for people in governance, risk, compliance and accounting.

The Chartered Governance Institute of Southern Africa equips students and members with the skills, knowledge and experience of governance professionals through their qualification, training and technical know-how.

The IMM Graduate School is an accredited Tuition provider for the Chartered Governance Institute of Southern Africa (CGI) qualifications.
